

Getting Published: Insights on Best Practices, Pitfalls, and AI — A Publisher led expert session by Elsevier

7'th April ,2026

Timings : 11 am – 12 noon

Venue:

Register Here

Topics to be covered:

- Avoiding Common Pitfalls in Manuscript Submission
- Strategies for Successful Paper Publication
- Integrating Artificial Intelligence in Academic Publishing
- Ethical Considerations in Scholarly Communication

Resource person

Dr. Thijs van Vlijmen
Executive Publisher
Psychology

Based in Amsterdam, the Netherlands
t.vlijmen@elsevier.com

- Ph.D. Cell biology and Biochemistry from the University of Utrecht, the Netherlands.
- MSc. Medical Biology from the University of Utrecht, the Netherlands.

Dr. Thijs van Vlijmen is an executive publisher responsible for the psychology portfolio at Elsevier. This includes the key journals Cognition, Personality and Individual Differences, Computers in Human Behavior and Acta Psychologica.

Thijs has worked for Springer Nature (9 years in Clinical Medicine and biomedical sciences) and Taylor & Francis (5 years in Social Sciences and Clinical Medicine) previously and has been with Elsevier for three year.

He is based at the Elsevier Amsterdam office in the Netherlands.

